Grimm's Inspiration Studies

Graded upwards from earliest through medium grade in five volumes
by Carl W. Grimm

These books contain both original and musical classics arranged for particular teaching purposes.

The following is a quotation from the author's preface:

"My one idea in compiling this work has been to give to the pupil, in the early days of his study and while his mind is in its most receptive state, examples of such work as will assuredly instil into his consciousness, a sense of that which is just, right and nice, in musical form and figure.
